ED. SIMMS' NEGOFOL NOW IN NEW YORK.

Negofol, the noted sire, purchased in France by Ed. F. Simms, of Xalapa Farm, for $150,000, is now at Belmont Park, N. Y., being rested from his journey over the ocean.
The trip to Kentucky will be continued as soon as Prince Palatine, Mr. Simms' $250,000 purchase, also arrives and is rested.

Negofol was not a great race horse but has made good as a sire, one of his progeny being Hourless, now at August Belmont's stud near Lexington.

RUSE TRAPS NEGRO WANTED BY POLICE.

Sylvester Anderson, colored, was arrested here by Chief of Police Link on a warrant charging him with forging and passing a number of checks on various merchants throughout the county. Chief Link, not being certain of having the right man, saw Anderson sitting in a local garage. He accosted him as "Joe Smith," and asked him where he had been since he shot a man in Mt. Sterling. The man denied that he was Joe Smith, and stated that he had not shot anyone in Mt. Sterling. He stated that his name was Sylvester Anderson. Anderson confessed that he was the man wanted, and was taken into custody. He was given a hearing in the County Court, Saturday morning, and held over to the grand jury.

Anderson was unable to give the $500 bond imposed by the Court, and was remanded to jail to await a hearing in the November term of Circuit Court. It was alleged he forged the signature of Clarence Halls, of Little Rock, to two checks for $15 each, which he had cashed at the stores of S. Rummans and Geo.
McWilliams. He is said to be wanted in Lexington on a cutting charge, and in Winchester on a forgery charge.

SALE REALIZES HANDSOME PROFIT FOR SCHOOL

The sale of edibles conducted Saturday by the pupils of the Home Economics department of the Paris High School realized about $50.
This sum will be devoted to the benefit of the Home Economics department. The pupils and teachers desire to extend their thanks to the public for the liberal patronage extended on this occasion.

RELIGIOUS.

—Rev. O. H. Mattox will preach in the Centerville Methodist church on the second and fourth Sundays in each month, instead of the first and third Sunday, as heretofore.

—Sunday was Quarterly Meeting Day at the Paris Methodist church.
The pastor, Rev. C. H. Greer, preached at the morning service, and administered the sacrament of the Lord's Supper. Rev. F. B. Jones, Presiding Elder of this district, preached at the evening service, and afterward presided at the Quarterly Conference.

—Rev. W. E. Ellis occupied his pulpit at both the morning and evening service at the Paris Christian church, Sunday. The morning service was in the nature of a dedicatory one, when the new organ and pulpit furniture was dedicated to the service of the Lord. At the evening service Rev. Ellis preached on the subject, "Can We Talk With The Dead?"

—At the annual meeting of the Kentucky Sunday School Association held in the Highland Presbyterian church, in Louisville, last week, Rev. C. H. Greer, pastor of the Paris Methodist church, was elected a member of the Executive Committee, which is composed of thirty members. M. T. McElowney, of Winchester, was elected president; Judge Otto Wolf, of Newport, vice-president, and Miss Mary Wilson, Louisville, secretary. The next meeting will be held in Newport.

—Last week the congregation of the Paris Methodist church paid a pre-arranged but unannounced visit to the parsonage, and gave Rev. and Mrs. C. H. Greer an "old fashioned pound party." They brought with them contributions of preserves, fruits, canned goods, chickens, hams, flour, cash, etc. Though taken completely by surprise Mr. and Mrs.
Greer recovered sufficiently to extend their warmest thanks to the donors for the many good things and for the expression of good will which accomplishes the gifts.

NOTED SONGSTRESS IN CONCERT AT LEXINGTON

Central Kentucky audience will have another opportunity to hear one of America's leading singers, when Geraldine Farrar comes to Woodland Park Auditorium, in Lexington, next Friday night, October 15, to sing in the second concert of the Artist Concert Series, 1920-1921.

The engagement is considered the most important event of the year, and the largest audience ever assembled in the auditorium for a concert is expected.

Edgar Schofield, baritone, and Ada Sassoli, harpist, will assist Miss Farrar, while Claud Gotthelf will be the accompanist for the evening.

The individual seat sale for the Farrar concert will be opened at 5 o'clock Monday morning at the Ben Ali Theatre ticket office, and will continue there until the night of the concert. Season tickets for the Artist Concert Series may be used for the Farrar concert. Reservation can be made by writing or telephoning to the manager, Miss Anna Chandler Goff, Lexington College of Music, Lexington. (adv)
